President's Message

Dear All:

It will probably come as no surprise to you that we are still unable to take advantage of our room at the County Complex for our June meeting. I am missing the meetings very much, but it can't be helped. The latest I have heard about the County plans are that places like the library are going to open on July 6th, which will allow us to have a meeting on July 11th if the plans don't change. I hope to see you all soon, in the meantime enjoy all your extra time at home with your parrots, and stay safe!

Flock is all about.

Even though our meeting have been shut down for the time being, WAES has still been active on the adoption front. The following adoptions took place during the last month. Congratulations to all!

Hermes, a Blue Fronted Amazon, was adopted by Nicole and Lochlin Butterfield and family.

Kizzy, Congo African Gray, was adopted by Richard and Amanda Gatt.

One bird was donated this month— Lacey, a yellow-naped Amazon
